

Appendix A

Study method and sources of information

Terms of reference

The main requirements of the review were to:

- map the existing research-related links between the charity and HE sectors;
- identify those links with the greatest potential for development;
- recommend ways these could be developed;
- assess the financial implications;
- compare with overseas experience and practice.

Within this remit, there were a number of areas requiring special attention which included:

- intellectual property;
- career opportunities within HE for charity-sponsored staff;
- development of best practice guidelines for major types of interaction.

Advisory group

The following were members of the Advisory Group for the study:

John Rushforth	HEFCE
Diana Garnham	AMRC
Jonathan Grant	Wellcome Trust
Andrew Passey	NCVO
Janet Lewis	Joseph Rowntree Foundation
Sharon Witherspoon	Nuffield Foundation
Professor Tony Crook	University of Sheffield
Professor Graham Bentham	University of East Anglia
Patricia Ambrose	SCOP

Visits and case studies

Meetings were held with the following organisations and institutions.

Charities sector

Arthritis Research Campaign
British Heart Foundation

Cancer Research Campaign
Capability Scotland
Cystic Fibrosis Trust
Imperial Cancer Research Fund
Leverhulme Trust
Lister Institute of Preventive Medicine
National Kidney Research Fund
Nuffield Foundation
Nuffield Trust
Joseph Rowntree Foundation
Wellcome Trust
Wishbone

Association of Charitable Foundations (ACF)
Association of Medical Research Charities (AMRC)
Charities Aid Foundation (CAF)
National Council for Voluntary Organisations (NCVO)
Association for Research in the Voluntary and Community Sector (ARVAC)

Focus groups were also formed with representatives of the charities sector.

HE sector

Imperial College
University College London (UCL)
University of Birmingham
University of Sheffield
University of Leicester
Liverpool John Moores University
University of Sussex
University of Warwick
University of East Anglia

Other groups and organisations

Medical Research Council
Universities UK
Council of Heads of Medical Schools
Joint Medical Advisory Committee
Standing Conference of Principals (SCOP) Research Committee